

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

PAUL SCOTT KLEIN,
Plaintiff,
v.
STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,
Defendant.

Case Number 3:23-cv-00387-ART-CSD

ORDER SETTING MANDATORY TELEPHONIC CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

STATE OF NEVADA, et al,
Defendants.

9 The court has now screened Plaintiff's complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a) and 10 ordered the case to proceed. In order to ensure the just, speedy, and cost-effective resolution of 11 this action, the court orders the parties to attend a mandatory telephonic case management
12 conference as described more fully below. No discovery may proceed until the court enters a full 13 scheduling order.

I. Mandatory Telephonic Case Management Conference

A mandatory telephonic case management conference will be held on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. To join the conference, each party is directed to call the toll-free telephone number 1-855-244-8681, then enter Access Code: 2318 801 2454, at least ten (10) minutes prior to the hearing. Defense counsel shall make the necessary arrangements for the Plaintiff's telephonic appearance at this conference and shall provide the Courtroom Administrator, Ashlyn Bye, at Ashlyn_Bye@nvd.uscourts.gov, with the telephone number at which the plaintiff can be reached for this mandatory telephonic case management conference at least one (1) week prior to the hearing. The parties should be available for one-half hour, although the case management conference will likely take less time.

II. Case Management Report

In advance of the mandatory case management conference, each party shall file a case management report no later than WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 2025.

The case management report must not exceed 5 pages and must not include any attached exhibits. Each party's case management report must include the following information in separately numbered paragraphs as designated below:

1) A brief statement of the nature of the case, including a brief description of the claims and defenses;

2) The location of potentially relevant documents;

3) The discovery each party intends to take, if any;

4) Any options or methods for the streamlining and/or bifurcation of discovery or the litigation;

5) Whether the defense of failure to exhaust administrative remedies may apply to any claim(s) and whether that defense, if successful, would be dispositive of the entire case or certain claims in the litigation. If a defense of failure to exhaust administrative remedies will be raised, address whether any discovery needs to be conducted as to that defense only, and if so, what discovery is required, and provide an estimate of how long the parties need to complete this discovery;

6) Whether the party intends to use expert witnesses;

7) Whether the party intends to proceed by consent before the magistrate judge.

Presently, when a civil trial is set before the district judges, any criminal trial set that conflicts with the civil trial will take priority, even if the civil trial was set first. Continuances of civil trials under these circumstances may no longer be entertained, absent good cause, but the civil

1 trial may instead trail from day to day or week to week until the completion of either the criminal
2 case or an older civil case. The parties are advised that they are free to withhold consent or 3 decline magistrate jurisdiction without adverse substantive consequences; and

4 8) Any immediate or ongoing issues or requests that require the court's immediate
5 attention or that should be brought to the court's attention.

III. Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order

Following the case management conference, the court will issue a discovery plan and scheduling order (DPSO). Once issued, the dates in the DPSO are firm and no extension will be given without permission from the court based on a showing of good cause.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
